Rank $5 Counterfeit Palmed Off on Balance of a Colored Huckster.

It Was "Shoved" by a Fellow in the Uniform of a Street Car Conductor.

About the rankest specimen of a counterfeit greenback ever uttered in this city found its way into the hands of inspector Hollinberger, at police headquarters, last evening. It was a blurred and badly printed wood cut imitation of a $5 legal tender bill, series of 1891, and appeared as though it had been printed on some antique handpress.

The spurious bill was brought to headquarters by William Chase, a colored huckster, of No. 222 Jackson Hall alley, While on the commons in the vicinity of the juli yesterday afternoon, peddling fruit from his wagon, Chase was approached by a white man clad in a very blue uniform, with brass buttons, similar to those worn by street railway conductors. The stranger purchased 10 cents' worth of pears and handed the buckster the bogus
